Our company has dealt with Nicholas Copeland Builders (NCB) since our inception in 2010. We can confirm that the managing director, Nicholas Copeland, is a man of integrity that is dependable, compassionate, enthusiastic, motivated, confident and above all, honest.

It has been a pleasure working on NCB's sites over the years. Their safety procedures, site management, general housekeeping and co-ordination of trade, is second to none. Our company has peace of mind when sending staff out to their sites as their regards for safety is paramount.

In addition NCB has made prompt payment for all projects completed in the past. It is common to see a 30 EOM bill settled within 7 days of submitting our invoice. We highly value our working relationship with NCB and look forward in working alongside them for many years to come.
